

The 10 presentations for the AKJ part of the Automotive Conference at the 28th /29th September 2010 at Tec de Monterrey in Mexico City

Head of AKJ Delegation

Prof. Dr. Klaus-J. Schmidt, President AKJ Automotive Germany
CSO Institute for Production and Logistics, Vice President GfPM e.V. and University of Appl. Sciences of the Saarland, Faculty of Engineering

AKJ Session One – 14:00 to 17:20, 28th of September 2010

Roberto Eggeling, Logistics Director, Volkswagen Navarra, Pamplona (Spain)

The new logistic at VW Pamplona – Strategy, Concept and results of redesigning logistics and production processes –speech in spanish.

Manfred Janke, Manager Controlling, Bosch, Homburg (Germany)

Process oriented policy deployment – Elements, success factors and examples to achieve business excellence in the supply chain.

Thomas Bittighofer, Head of Process and Systems Integration AUDI, Ingolstadt (Germany)

One Provider for all – Cost reduction und quality improvement with with a redesign structure and quantity of IT- and Supply-Chain-Providers.

Peter Schonefeld, Mgr. SCM Strategy Schmitz-Cargobull, Altenberge (Germany)

Reduce Supply Risks – The financial crisis and results to tackle future risks in the supply network.

AKJ Session Two – 14:00 to 17:20, 28th of September 2010

Horst Kuhn, Senior Expert Daimler Truck, Wörth (Germany)

Drive Supplier performance – Concepts and experiences to improve the process of supplier evaluation and development in Germany.

Peter Kovse, Head of Logistics&IT Odelo, Prebold (Slovenia)

Redesign Production and Logistics – World Class Manufacturing and lean logistic as a module at the global Tear1 supplier odelo Slovenij

Klaus Minninger, Senior Expert Ford, Saarlouis (Germany)

The way to become lean in the OEM & Supplier world –
Strategies and proceedings to achieve lean processes and systems

Matías Yarza, Sales & Engineering Mgr, SEGLO Group, Puebla (Mexico).

Supply Chain process design and improvement in Automotive and Consumer Goods Industries -
Similarities and differences. Best practices sharing process, innovation and improvement methodologies

AKJ Session Three – 11:00 to 12:20, 29th of September 2010

Levente Tibori, Director SMR India/Hungary, Mosonszolnok (Hungary)

Design for sustainability – Strategies and results by a total lifecycle concepts beginning from the design process up to the end of usage.

Pol van Eyghen, CEO FITT, Saarbrücken (Germany)

Automotive innovation with cooperation – Concepts to integrate research resources to innovate logistics and production in the automotive industry

Moderators AKJ Sessions

Pol van Eyghen, Prof. Dr. Andrea Lochmahr,

Prof. Dr. K.-J. Schmidt and other Speakers

Backup presentation

Prof. Dr. Klaus-J. Schmidt, Director IPL, Saarbrücken (Germany)

New logistics concepts to drive more profitability –

Concepts and results in the automotive industry.